ARRANGEMENTS ALL COMPLETED FOR BOYD-NEWMAN ENCOUNTER

Las Vegas, N. M., April 16 .-- All reliminary arrangements have been made for the Newman-Boyd light weight bout that is to be staged in this city on May 16. The managers of the two boys have posted their forfaith with Charles O'Malley and · everything is in readiness for the battie. The fighting weight will be 133 pounds and the contest is scheduled to go ten rounds. Newman will arrive in the city the last of this month to begin training for the match, and has asked O'Mailey to make arrangements to stage a preliminary bout several days before the main fight, between Newman and a Las Vegas boy, so that he may be in shape to put up a first class battle on the 16th. Boyd will also arrive in the city several days before the battle and will train here for the bout.

No definite arrangements have yet been made as to where the bout will be staged, but it probably will be in the Armory. The battle is for the lightweight champlonship of the southwest, and will be a fast go. Charles O'Malley, the local promoter, has charge of the arrangements.
